Re: LTD System™ (patent pending)
by Empire Foam, LLC.

To Whom It May Concern:

Empire Foam, LLC. ("Empire") has developed a proprietary lap trim drainage system known as the LTD System™ related to the fabrication and installation of decorative foam moldings and trim for use in building construction. Empire's intellectual property rights provide it with certain proprietary rights. For example, Empire is entitled to restrict and/or license the use of its LTD System™ or similar components and installation methods. Empire's LTD System™ serves as an important and distinctive representation of its products and installation methods. Empire, therefore, finds it is imperative to protect it against any misrepresentation that may cause substantial harm to Empire's business or facilitate the unauthorized use of proprietary products and methods to the extent permitted by law.

Empire Foam, LLC. is seeking your cooperation in respecting its intellectual property rights in the LTD System™ and is offering licensing opportunities of the LTD System™ to qualified vendors. If you may be interested in licensing the LTD System™ for your projects, please contact the undersigned at (407) 656-9884.

Sincerely,

Frank Ramos
Inventor/Owner Empire Foam, LLC.
